

Memorandum of Understanding

Between

Asia Pacific Business Council for Women Inc (APBCW)

And

Expatriate Professional Women's Society (EPWS)

28th April 2004

OBJECTIVE:

- The objective of the alliance between APBCW and EPWS is to promote professional and cultural development for business women across Australia and China.

TERMS OF UNDERSTANDING:

The Asia Pacific Business Council for Women Inc and the Expatriate Professional Women's Society agree to collaborate under these terms:

- To facilitate business networking for members of APBCW in Shanghai, China and for members of EPWS in Adelaide, Australia.
- To extend the destinations of support to other cities of Australia and China by accessing business networks and connections in other major cities.
- To publish contact details of EPWS and APBCW and hyper-links to each other's websites.
- To share knowledge and experience by publicizing relevant information in each other's newsletters or websites if the article is of mutual benefit to EPWS and APBCW.
- To invite members to each other's events. To offer reciprocal member's prices by EPWS and APBCW.
- To adhere to privacy terms and conditions of membership database.
- Without prejudice, each organization reserves the right to review and modify this Memorandum of Understanding from time to time.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jing Lee', is written over a horizontal line.

Jing Lee, President, APBCW

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Sharon J. Landon', is written over a horizontal line.

Sharon Landon, President, EPWS